My childhood sense and vision Of things elysian, How can I ever lose? For all things that I see Are more to me, If wet with life s fresh morning dews: The light they keep, in which at first They on my being burst. For, not a paltry thing of years, Whose sense grows dim and vision blears, Can childhood be, A transient ecstasy; It is God s kingdom, where He keeps all things unfolding fair; Where every sight Perennial yeilds a fresh delight; The colors cannot fade His hand upon them laid, About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
