The elevated brow of her friend forgot its stateliness, and his eagle glance its scrutiny, as her examination brought into such singular contrast his hand and hers. He appeared to take a delight in the comparison himself, and it was not till she raised her eyes, with much timidity, from her musing, that he raised the small snowy hand he had been so long admiring, to his lips, and whatever shade of doubt had till now lingered on her bright and sunny cheek disappeared, and a smile, like a sunbeam, glittered from her tear-laden and long lashes. Look! bold intruder, said the damsel; my day has not been wholly idle! and she lifted up the paper whose drawing she had partly transferred to her tapestry. The noble individual thus addressed bent for a minute over the frame-work, but still held prisoner the fair hand that had been given him. We will sketch you a more stirring picture, my fair one, he said, with a look affectionate, yet searching, and which pierced deeply into her secret; what think you of the storming of the palace of the Priori An expression of pain and fear sent the colour from the maidens cheek with a suddenness which for a minute made both silent. Oh do! do so, my kind, my dear friend! she exclaimed, eagerly; it would be a gift beyond price to me and to my father, and surely it was to all men a scene of...
