Excerpt: .largely, by means of Treasury subventions, to the cost of the County Police and County Lunatic Asylums, besides having to bear the whole cost of County Prisons; and it is quite possible that additional demands of the same kind may be made, and justly made, upon him. For instance, the Education rate may properly be considered a tax for national purposes, and it is somewhat hard that landowners and farmers, in common with other employers, should bear so large a proportion of it, while they are prohibited from employing the cheap labour of children, and compelled to pay a higher scale of wages to adults. But such demands cannot fairly be adjusted to B s income by strict arithmetical rules; still less would it be fair to shift upon his shoulders a great part of A s burdens, without regard for vested interests. For...
